new york

In recognition of this, the 25th Anniversary of our "Shaft," we present here an excerpt from the first "Shaft," edited by the Class of 1940.

FOREWORD

After months of strenuous work, we publish the "Shaft" to show the classes, clubs, sports, activities, friends, classmates, teachers; and the new modernly equipped school that have benefited us in many our cational and recreational ways school has cational and recreational ways school spears in high school. The new school that afforded us many pleasant memories the first afforded us many pleasant memories the first can be derived only from being the first senior class to reign in a new school and senior class to reign in a new school and from spending the first year in becoming acquainted with its newness.

The "Shaft" will serve as a memory school days that can always be reviewed with pleasure.

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1964, dedicate our "Shaft" to the 25 preceding classes of York Central. We appreciate the initiative shown by the Class of 1940 in bringing about the birth of the "Shaft," and we hope that the following classes will continue to edit it as a memorial of their golden high school years.

Mr. McCaughey Vice-Principal

Mr. Hilfiker Principal

Though power is in the hands of these two men, they have used it wisely and thus have gained the admiration and respect of the student body. To Mr. Hilfiker and to Mr. McCaughey. we all owe our thanks -- for helping to make our high school years enjoyable and profitable, and for setting an example of honesty, fair-mindedness and congeniality. As the leaders of tomorrow's world, we should strive to follow their excellent example.

Frank Matina

music by

The York Central gymnasium was superbly decorated by the committee with green and white crepe paper highlighted by an enormous evergreen wreath which glittered with red lights in the center of the floor. Three silver bells were suspended from its center and reflected the lights.

The stage curtains opened to reveal the throne which was set off by evergreen boughs and colored lights.

Thomasine Rainer and David Mac-Intyre reigned as Queen and King of the festive occasion which was accented with the music of Frank Mattina. thletics

JUNIOR PROM

A Colass of 64

ALMA MATER

With fervor we will praises sing
To our Alma Mater true.
Her stately halls with gladness ring,
As our fealty we renew.
The gold and purple bid each heart,
With purpose firm to play his part.
Before the portals lifted high
Lofty elms point to the sky.

Loved Alma Mater ever true
May we always cling to you.
May every praise to you this day
Hold us to thy mighty sway.
When we have left thy honored halls
Glad memories will be recalled.
Of victories won by the fold
For the purple and the gold.
